

PARALEGALS FLY TO Lucerne, Switzerland April 21 – April 29, 2017 (Eight Days and Seven Nights)

FRI, April 21, 2017 -- Depart from the USA to Europe.

SAT, April 22, 2017 (Lucerne) - Arrive in Switzerland's bustling financial city of Zurich where you will be met by an ACIS staff member and transfer to the lakeside town of Lucerne. Join ACIS tonight for a welcome reception at your hotel. (D)

SUN, April 23, 2017 (Lucerne) - Start the day with a morning walking tour where your tour manager will introduce you to the city and its lake, river, many bridges and views of Mount Pilatus. Your entrance fee to the Rosengart collection, with more than 50 Picassos as well as 200 works by a dozen other 'Classic Modernists', is included. (B)

MON, April 24, 2017 (Lucerne) - Spend today cruising magnificent Lake Lucerne and visit the town of Altdorf, the setting of the William Tell legend; the marksman who defied an overlord and was forced to shoot an apple atop his son's head. See the Tell monument and view the Ruetli field where the original Oath of Confederation that founded Switzerland was taken. Break up the day with a traditional Swiss lunch while taking in the alpine views. (B,L)

TUE, April 25, 2017 (Lucerne) - Today is free to explore as you wish. Perhaps start by strolling the bridges, gazing up at the painting along the ceiling of the wooden Kappelbruecke or Chapel Bridge.

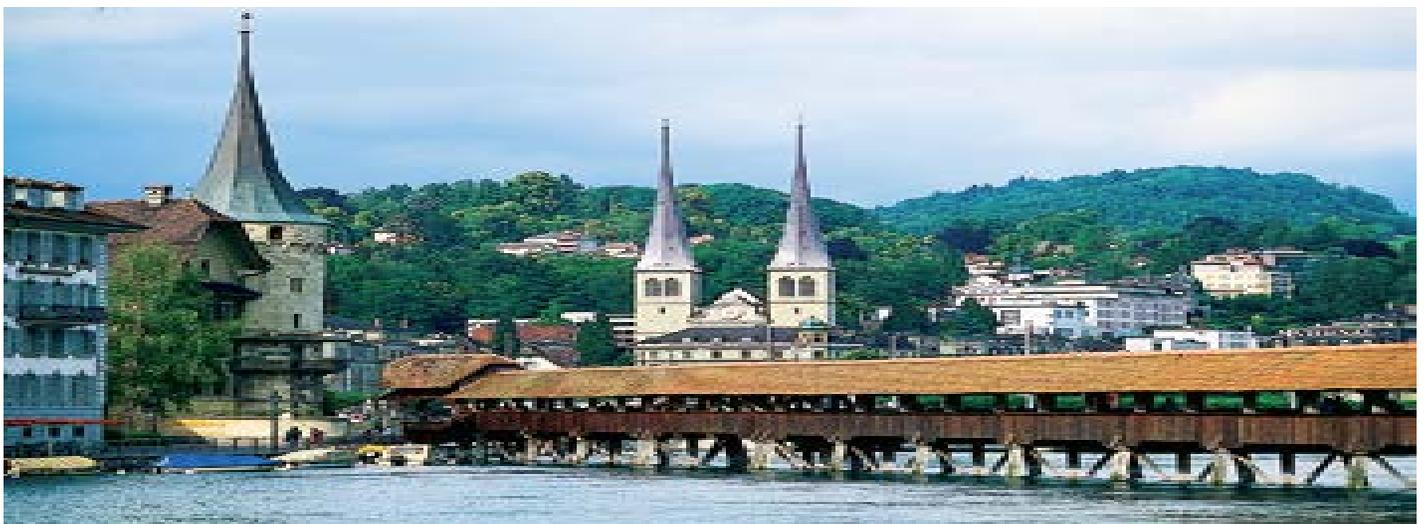

Explore the old center and its half-timber Fachwerk architecture. Lucerne also boasts numerous galleries worth browsing in search of the perfect souvenir. (B)

WED, April 26, 2017 (Lucerne) - Today enjoy a full-day excursion to glacier- and forest-laden Interlaken. These pristine surroundings of diverse alpine flora form a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In Brienz, watch the masters at work during a woodcarving demonstration; a trade so highly skilled and prized that students have to take an entrance exam and train for four years. Visit the open-air Ballenberg living museum as well, which exemplifies traditional Swiss farming and rural life. (B)

THU, April 27, 2017 (Lucerne) - Planting your feet in four countries within a single day is a rare feat indeed. The "Four Countries in One Day" excursion takes you from Switzerland to explore Bregenz in Austria and Lindau in Germany, both of which share the beautiful Lake Constance, or Bodensee, and then on to Vaduz in Liechtenstein (the prince's hometown). (B)

FRI, April 28, 2017 (Lucerne) - Today is a free day to finish soaking in the Swiss lifestyle and relaxing at a cafe; with those last-minute postcards. Tonight's farewell dinner with your traveling companions is a time to share memories and enjoy the satisfaction of a vacation well spent. (B,D)

SAT, April 29, 2017 - Depart for the USA. (B)
