

PARALEGAL DIVISION

STATE BAR OF TEXAS

www.txpd.org

ARTICLE PRINT PERMISSION FORM

(Please submit articles in .doc format and photographs in 1MB in size for best resolution)

If your article has been published, or submitted for publication, or accepted for publication to any publication other than the Texas Paralegal Journal, please indicate the following:

Published on _____ [Date(s)].

Submitted for Publication.

Accepted for Publication on _____ [Date(s)].

Name(s) of Publication(s): _____

Name of Author, firm, and other credit information: _____

If a reprint, the Person/Entity giving permission _____

Website URL to list: _____

Title of Article: _____

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Company: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____

City, State _____ Signature: _____

FOR ARTICLE REPRINTS

We often receive requests for reprints of the articles appearing in the Texas Paralegal Journal, sometimes many years after they are printed. We have found that many authors have changed jobs, retired, etc. and we have difficulty locating them. Therefore, we are enclosing this short form that we will appreciate your completing and returning to the address listed below.

Yes, you have my permission to allow reprints of my article.

No, you do not have permission to reprint my article.

Please contact me before granting permission to reprint.

PERMISSION FOR POSTING ON THE PD WEBSITE

Once it has been published, the Texas Paralegal Journal is posted on the Paralegal Division website (www.txpd.org). Please make selection below regarding website publication of your article.

Yes, you have my permission to post my article on the PD website.

No, you do not have permission to post my article on the PD website.

Please return to: Megan Goor, TBLS-BCP, Editor, Texas Paralegal Journal
The Brender Law Firm
600 8th Ave.
Fort Worth, Texas 76104
817 334-0171, telephone
817 334-0274, telecopier
Email: tpj@txpd.org